Jesus Name Above All Names/Open My Eyes, Lord

Jesus name above all names, beautiful Savior,
 Glorious Lord,
 Emmanuel, God is with us, precious Redeemer,
 Living Word.

Open my eyes, Lord, I want to see Jesus,
 To reach out and touch him, and say that I love,
 him.

Open my ears, Lord, and help me to listen.
 Open my eyes, Lord. I want to see Jesus.

Taste and See

Antiphon: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord,
 Let us taste the goodness of the Lord.
(repeat)

1. I will bless the Lord, his praise be ever in my mouth.
 Let my soul glory in the Lord,
 The lowly will hear and be glad.

2. Glorify the Lord with me, together we'll praise his name.
 I sought the Lord and he answered me,
 Deliver me from all my fears.
3. Look to him and be radiant with joy,
 And your face will not blush with shame.
 Afflicted men call out to him,
 From all his distress he is saved.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan: Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.A Reading from Deuteronomy (26:1-11)

When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, "Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our ancestors to give us." When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the LORD your God, you shall make this response before the LORD your God: "A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, we cried to the LORD, the God of our ancestors; the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring

Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these." Mark 12:29-31

The Celebrant then says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.Minister and People

Most merciful God, /we confess that we have sinned against you/in thought, word, and deed, /by what we have done,/and by what we have left undone./ We have not loved you with our whole heart;/ we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. / We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. / For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,/ have mercy on us and forgive us;/ that we may delight in your will,/and walk in your ways,/ to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

A Reading from Romans

(10:8b-13)

"The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart"

(that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Forty days and forty nights

The Holy Gospel

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
According to Luke (4:1-13)

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After his baptism, Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours." Jesus answered him, "It is written,

'Worship the Lord your God,
and serve only him.'

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written,

'He will command his angels
concerning you,
to protect you,'

and

'On their hands they will bear
you up,
so that you will not dash
your foot against a stone.'

Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

Fr. Haynes

Silence for reflection

The Nicene Creed (Standing, as able.)

We believe in one God / the Father the Almighty / maker of heaven and earth / of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ / the only Son of God / eternally begotten of the Father / God from God Light from Light / true God from true God / begotten, not made / of one Being with the Father / Through him all things were made / For us and for our salvation / he came down from heaven / By the power of the Holy Spirit / he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man / For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate / he suffered death and was buried. / On the third day he rose again / in accordance with the Scriptures / he ascended into heaven / and is seated at the right hand of the Father / He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead / and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life / who proceeds from the Father and the Son / With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified / He has spoken through the Prophets / We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church / We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins / We look for the resurrection of the dead / and the life of the world to come. Amen.

On Eagle's Wings

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord, who abide in this shadow for life, Say to the Lord, "My Refuge, My Rock in Whom I trust."

Refrain

And He will raise you up on eagle's wings, bear you on the breath of dawn, make you to shine like the sun, and hold you in the palm of my hand.

Snares of the fowler will never capture you, and famine will bring you no fear; under God's wings your refuge, with faithfulness your shield.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever.

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise.

Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing,

Sanctus S 130

Deutsche Messe

(Said at 8:00; sung at 10:00)

(Printed on page 11 & 12 of the Worship Guide)

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel. The Celebrant continues

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People

We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Celebrant continues

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, with patriarchs, matriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN.

Lord's Prayer (said at 8:00 and sung at 10:00)
(printed on page 13 of the Worship Guide)

Celebrant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and Holy Communion

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast.

Facing the people, the Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people.

The Bread and the Cup are given to the communicants with these words

The Body of Christ, the bread of heaven. [Amen.]
The Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation. [Amen.]

This is our Lord's Table, and He is our host. All persons are invited to receive Holy Communion. Those who have yet to be baptized are encouraged to speak with the clergy after the service about becoming baptized into Christ's Body.

Gluten-free hosts and alcohol-free wine are available upon request at the rail.

Fear Not, Rejoice and Be Glad

Refrain: Fear not, rejoice and be glad,
 The Lord hath done a great thing;
 Hath poured out his Spirit on all humankind,
 On those who confess his name.

1. The fig tree is budding, the vine beareth fruit,
 The wheat fields are golden with grain.
 Thrust in the sickle, the harvest is ripe,
 The Lord has given us rain.
2. Ye shall eat in plenty and be satisfied,
 The mountains will drip with sweet wine .
 My children shall drink of the fountain of life,
 My children will know they are mine.
3. My people shall know that I am the Lord,
 Their shame I have taken away.
 My spirit will lead them together again.
 My spirit will show them the way.
4. My children shall dwell in a body of love,
 A light to the world they will be.
 Life shall come forth from the Father above,
 My body will set all free.

Stations of the Cross – Fridays—in Lent at 6:00 PM beginning February 12 - Stations of the Cross or the Way of Sorrows is the fourteen point journey acknowledging Jesus' experience from being condemned to death to the tomb. This is a fabulous and contemplative liturgy that interactively serves as a pilgrimage for us as believers. Please join us for this ancient and profound discipline!

Tuesday Night Lenten Series—with the Rev. Dr. Frank Spina, Professor of Old Testament and Biblical Studies at Seattle Pacific University and Priest Associate at St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, Bellevue.

Most of us love biblical stories, and for good reason. The epic Story constitutes our Christian identity. We preach from biblical stories, sing about them, sometimes enact or dance to them, discuss them, and teach them to the children. In countless ways, the big picture biblical Story and the many smaller biblical stories bless us deeply.

This year's focus will be on the Hymnal of the Bible, the Book of Psalms with the following program:
Psalms Sung in a Lenten Key.

Week 1: Tues., February 16 - "How Good it is to Confess and Be Forgiveness" (Psalm 32) @ Good Shepherd, Federal Way

Week 2: Tues., February 23 - "Creating a New Heart" (Palm 51) @ St. Matthew, Browns Point

Week 3: Tues., March 1 - "Forgiveness: Dwelling with God" (Psalms 90 & 91) @ Good Shepherd, Federal Way

Week 4: Tues., March 8 - "Bless the Lord Who Forgives Everything!" @ St. Matthew, Browns Point
Soup Makers Needed

Week 5: Tues., March 15 - "Trying to Avoid God: You Can't!" (Psalm 139) @ Good Shepherd, Federal Way

The series starts at 6:30 PM with a soup dinner and the teaching starts at 7:15 PM. All are welcome to attend. Victoria Pann is a local re-enactor who has developed Annie Brown, the Browns Point Lighthouse's first Lightkeeper Oscar Brown's wife as her historical character. Pann performed this summer as Annie as a member of the Fort Nisqually Time Travelers, a select group of living history re-enactors. The group performed at the Old Tacoma Cemetery with their characters standing beside their actual gravesite and speaking of their lives.

The second speaker will be Tom Dargan of Metro Parks. Dargan is the project manager for the Browns Point Lighthouse Park. He will give us an update on the progress for the plan for the Park. Besides the excellent speakers, we will have refreshments, free raffle, gift shop sales and great company. Don't miss it. The meeting is open to all and is free!

Newcomers for Sunday School - Dear St. Matthew members. It's a new year and we longtime teachers need you to join us with new ideas and interactions with the Sunday school children who are also members of our beloved church. Anne, Jackie, Liz and Kitty have been bringing Godly Play into the new Sunday worship hours and also providing time for other activities. If you haven't spent time in the Sunday school to make some new connections with the kids, now is the time! The class is held at 9:00am, before the 10am service and then the children go into the nave for the remainder of the liturgy. Look in the narthex for the Sunday School mentor signup sheet. You can try it for one session and add to our ability to serve the young Episcopalians. They will look forward to the opportunity of knowing you better. Any questions? Contact Anne, Jackie or Liz. Thank you.

Greg Hope, Diocese of Olympia, Refugee Resettlement Office Here on February 27th – Greg will be at St Matthew on Saturday, February 27th at 10am to speak. The Diocese of Olympia's Refugee Resettlement Office helps refugees and asylees achieve economic self-sufficiency. Our mission is accomplished through resettlement, job placement activities, and business development programs that promote self-employment.

With support from Episcopal Migration Ministries, Refugee Resettlement Office provides services for newly arriving refugees to help them put down roots in their first months in the United States. This includes securing and fully furnishing an apartment for an arriving family; picking up an arriving family at the airport; and ensuring a culturally appropriate meal awaits the family at their new home, right when they arrive. Food is provided for the family until they can provide their own food; seasonal clothing and footwear is provided for each member of the family (including diapers for infants & toddlers) upon arrival. The family is assisted in applying for assistance and services for which they are eligible; each member of the family receives a health assessment. Children are enrolled in school and adults are enrolled in English and cultural orientation classes. Work-ready adults receive employment services and assistance in applying for and securing a job.
